We, the editors, would like to thank the entire staff for assisting us in editing the 1954 PORTICO.

We have enjoyed planning and preparing this yearbook and hope that we have done justice in reviewing our two years at Bay Path.

PORTICO STAFF

The PORTICO staff of 1954 presents to the graduating class this yearbook, which is dedicated to the Bay Path Look.

We have attempted to create for you an authentic impression of a look at Bay Path as we have seen it during these past two years. We hope you will like our presentation.

The entire PORTICO staff would like to express its appreciation and gratitude to Mrs. Muriel J. Mitchell and Mr. William Urton, who willingly gave their time and effort to assist us in producing the Bay Path Look.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The officers are elected by the Seniors as representatives of the students in the class.

The faculty advisor is also elected to give advice and counseling on the problems that confront the class during the year.

President — JUDITH ARNOLD

SENIOR HOSTESSES

A number of girls are chosen each year to act as Senior Hostesses. These girls are chosen for this honor on the merit of personality and school spirit.

A Senior Hostess sponsors two or three incoming students, and after a summer of correspondence, greets the girls as they arrive at Bay Path in September. She further aids them in getting accustomed to college life and making their first year at Bay Path a profitable and pleasant one.

1952 An Eye to the News 1954

FINAL EDITION

REGISTRATION

September 16, 1952 — This morning was a very busy one at Bay Path. New junior girls were arriving from their homes to register at the college. Senior Hostesses met the girls with whom they had been communicating all summer and acquainted them with the registration procedure.

Later in the morning the girls were greeted in the spacious auditorium by Dean Emma McCraray. She further acquainted them with all the rules and regulations that must be adhered to by every girl. Student handbooks were given to each junior girl at this time. The Dean also presented the officers and members of the Student Council to the new students.

After a morning of getting acquainted with Bay Path, the juniors prepared to make the two years lying before them both pleasant and profitable in every way.

PICNIC

September 18, 1952—It was a beautiful fall morning and a pleasant one for the girls sitting around the swimming pool near Deepwood Hall singing songs of old and new. This group was composed of the new junior girls and the senior girls, and the occasion was the first picnic honoring the class of 1954.

Later in the morning the juniors joined with the seniors and faculty in various games. The faculty vs. students games were the most colorful events.

At noontime everyone had a delectable luncheon at the picnic grounds with hamburgers and hot dogs as the piece de resistance. The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to various things, from chatting with new friends to swimming in the pool.

It was a very enjoyable picnic with a good time had by all.

ELIZABETH ARDEN DAY

October 28, 1952 — Today was the day that had been anxiously awaited for so long—Elizabeth Arden Day. One day each year the beauticians from Elizabeth Arden's Salon in New York come to Bay Path to answer that age-old question: "What can I do to make myself beautiful?"

Well, they were really kept busy today. First, they showed us how to take care of our skin, then our hair. Nancy Johnson and Dorothy Partyka were used to demonstrate, and they both looked very glamorous. Next, they showed us how to keep our bodies in shape. Many a moan and groan was heard as we were put through the paces.

Following this, many of the girls received individual counseling about their own special problems.

TEA and FASHION SHOW

November 19, 1952—Deepwood was the scene today of one of the biggest social events of the year — the Fall Fashion Show and Tea. The girls' mothers and housemothers were the honored guests.

An expert taste for the latest in styles was quite evident as the narrator, Patricia Bradley, described each girl as she gracefully came down the winding staircase in her stunning outfit.

The styles varied from the prettiest in formals and bridesmaids' gowns, chic afternoon, cocktail, and tailored dresses, to the smartest of lounging robes and pajamas.

Following the show, all of the girls and their guests were served tea.

TALENT SHOW

November 24, 1952 — Much talent was discovered today as the Junior Class presented a star-studded variety review.

Many laughs were provided by our slacks-clad chorus line as they sang "Ain't She Sweet" and by the antics of the "characters" singing "Collegiate."

CHRISTMAS FORMAL

December 6, 1952—The night finally arrived when we all could don our evening gowns and step out for a star-studded evening of dancing.

The Hotel Kimball was gaily decorated in its Christmas attire; and Jerry LaMothe's Orchestra played a beautiful tune as each girl, carrying a long-stemmed American Beauty rose, happily entered the ballroom with her escort.

Everyone enjoyed the dancing for four wonderful hours. Pictures were taken during the evening so that they, too, could be tucked away in the scrapbook of memories.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

December 17, 1952—Many a happy face was seen today as the time for the Christmas Party drew near.

A very beautiful pageant of the manger scene was depicted in front of the Christmas tree by some of the girls. After this, Santa Claus paid us a visit and handed out many nice gifts.

At twelve o'clock everyone was wished a Merry Christmas, a Happy New Year, and a fond farewell as we all headed home for a long-awaited vacation.

CORONATION

May 24, 1953—There couldn't have been a more perfect day for such a beautiful occasion. Our beautiful Queen, Janet Fricke, is a picture of loveliness as she appears with Beverly Trimboli, Nannette Steen, Joyce Goodale, Judy Arnold, and Florence Palmer, of our own class, as members of her Court.

With the Queen and her Court watching from the throne, the entertainment begins. First is the Daisy [illegible] and the Maypole Dance. A grea[illegible] of the girls participate in t[illegible] they add much to the beauty occasion.

Later, the stylish Summer Fashion Show takes place around the lovely swimming pool. All the latest in summer fashions are shown to the many many people attending.

JUNE PICNIC

June 4, 1953—"Sign my yearbook!" was the password today at the final picnic of the year.

We were served a delicious picnic lunch, catered by Friendly's, after which, we eagerly hunted for some unfortunate person to throw in the pool. Some of the girls played tennis, and some were brave enough to go in swimming.

PICNIC

September 16, 1953—Today we, as the new seniors, greeted our new junior class. We were very honored by having them serve us our lunch.

Mr. Clarke and Mr. Natunewicz managed us in a softball game. The girls then played tennis, went swimming, and ran relay races.

The highlight of the day was Mr. Clarke's dunking in the pool.

FASHION SHOW

November 12, 1953 — The Fall Fashion Show this year was presented by the Art Department under the direction of Mr. Urton, Art Director.

A novel feature of the show was the sketching by art students during the show and the showing of finished apparel that followed student designs. Approximately 75 guests in addition to the student body were present in Deepwood Hall.

FINALS

June 2, 1953 — Many a furrowed brow is seen around the campus these days, for as the proverb goes, "Now is the time for all Bay Path students to pass their final exams."

For many of us, this is the first experience with a final exam, and we are very wary of them. Of course, the seniors don't make it any easier for us by talking about how very difficult they are; but, after all, they only come along twice a year.

GRADUATION

June 5, 1953—Today we bid farewell to the many wonderful friends who helped us through our first year at college — the seniors. Many of these girls we will never see again as they scatter all over the country, but others we shall always keep as lasting friends.

Many a tear was shed as we sang the Alma Mater for them as they — some sad, some happy, but all reminiscent — walked away to their separate lives.

PRESIDENT'S TEA

November 19, 1953 — We were all very pleased that Mr. Carr was able to attend the tea this year. In the receiving line with him were Mrs. Carr, Dean McCraray, and Miss Bradley.

The juniors were presented in the line by their Senior Hostesses. Later, tea was served to all present.

SKITS FOR MAY QUEEN

February 18, 1954—After a week of campaigning, the managers of the various candidates for May Queen employed the services of both juniors and seniors in presenting their original skits.

Some of the themes used in the skits were Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, an Old-Fashioned Style Show, the King of Hearts, Dragnet, Winter Wonderland, and Nursery Rhymes. A good time was had by all.

CORONATION

May 23, 1954 — Carolyn Swanson made a beautiful Queen of May this afternoon as she approached her throne. She was followed by her lovely court with Beverly Trimboli, Barbara Green, Joyce Goodale, Nannette Steen, and Florence Palmer as members. The Queen's special attendants were Anne Tehan and Jan Truhlar.

As part of the day's special festivities, the Junior Class honored the May Queen with the traditional Maypole Dance and colorful Daisy Chain, while members of the graduating class presented their Queen with gifts.

The activities of the day concluded with the annual Spring Fashion Show which was presented for the Queen and her Court and the many spectators.

GRADUATION

June 4, 1954—The long-awaited and much-anticipated day of graduation finally arrived. As the Seniors donned their caps and gowns and marched down the lawn to receive their diplomas, they remembered the many good times they had had during the last two years.

After receiving their diplomas and bidding farewell to their many friends, each departed on her separate way with the memories of Bay Path never to be forgotten.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The officers are elected by the Juniors as representatives of the students in the class.

The faculty advisor is also elected to give advice and counseling on the problems that confront the class during the year.

President — JOAN WENDELSCHAEFER

Vice-President — JACKLYN McCARTHY

Secretary — LOIS STAFFORD

Treasurer — MARILYN GOODREAU

Advisor — MR. HENRY NATUNEWICZ

STUDENT COUNCIL

President — FLORENCE PALMER

Vice-President — HELENE ADLER

Secretary — CLAIRE LA FLEUR

Treasurer — ALICE GUSTAFSON

The Student Council is the governing body, chosen by the students to act as representatives for them between the faculty and administration and the student body.

During this past year the Student Council made many sales in its little store, held many dances and parties and sponsored several benefit cake sales for the World Student Service Fund.

Marlene Dean, Rosemary Marshall, Rita Newman and Virginia Poirier were senior members. Jill Barry, Betty Kochanowski, Peggy Donohue and Nancy Lane were the junior members.

DORMITORY COMMITTEES

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

HOUSE COMMITTEE

DORMITORY OFFICERS

FIRST SEMESTER DORMITORY OFFICERS

President — SHEILA MORSE

Vice-President — MAVIS STEARNS

Secretary-Treasurer — LOIS MOSELEY

House Director — MRS. PEARLE RIDLEY

The dormitory officers are elected twice each year by the residents of Empsall Hall. These officers preside at all monthly house meetings.

SECOND SEMESTER DORMITORY OFFICERS

President — ANNETTE MOLLEUR

Vice-President — PHYLLIS VINCENT

Secretary-Treasurer — BARBARA GREEN

House Director — MRS. PEARLE RIDLEY

OUTING CLUB

President — DOROTHY HUNT

Vice-President — ANNETTE MOLLEUR

Secretary — PATRICIA THOMPSON

Treasurer — CAROL WALZ

Membership in the Outing Club is open to all Bay Path students who are interested in planning and participating in parties and outdoor sports. Though a mild winter curtailed the club's winter sports activities, a most successful Hallowe'en costume party was held in October.

GLEE CLUB

After a year's absence from Bay Path activities, the Glee Club was re-formed this year under the capable direction of Mrs. Carolyn D. Locke, who also serves as accompanist for the group. A delightful feature of our Christmas party was the Glee Club's choral singing of the familiar carols.

An eye to Bay Path Fashions

With the opening of the winter season in fashions, all eyes again centered on Bay Path's unique style show. Here students, schooled in grace and poise, modeled their own clothes before the appreciative glance of invited guests. With an eye to beauty as well as utility, Bay Path models selected costumes varying from diaphanous formals to tweedy suits.

AN EYE TO THE FUTURE

A report is in from Cypress Gardens. In the new water-ski show, the feature act is by HELENE ADLER doing a 360-degree jump in backward motion. Good luck, Helene!

JUDY ARNOLD has filled the requirements for a perfect secretary so well that she is now married and the mother of two children.

HELEN BONNEAU, noted pianist, has composed a sequel to "Warsaw Concerto," which she will present at the Bay Path Junior College auditorium next week in honor of the class of 1954.

A late dispatch from Boston discloses that Miss PATRICIA BRADLEY, of Cranston, Rhode Island, was elected the dean of women at Wellesley Junior College.

GLORIA COLITTI has opened up her own driving school in Texas, where there is plenty of room to back up and make "U" turns.

BETTY CUMMINGS is the wife of a physical education teacher, and in her spare time she teaches students how to balance peanuts on their heads while they do cartwheels.

LEE DEAN has replaced Duncan Hines as connoisseur of good food in the United States.

Our own SHIRLEY DICKINSON has found her place on Broadway. She is now starring in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

JOYCE GOODALE'S picture with her winning smile is in every magazine all over the country advertising "Easy-to-squirt-toothpaste."

Well, those boys in Korea are really getting some good entertainment now. BARBARA GREEN just flew there today; many eyes will be fixed on Bobbie doing her tap dance revue and singing the blues.

ALICE GUSTAFSON has just written a new spelling book entitled Spel the Wa it Sowns. We hope it will be a success.

ANN HOAR has finally found a job to her liking. Her boss gives her a half-hour break every morning to go home for her mail. Mail comes very quickly from St. Mike's, doesn't it, Ann?

Marshall Fields of Chicago has been extremely fortunate in securing the services of BETTY HOWES as official mattress tester. Yes, you can see her almost every day lying on the latest type of mattress sold by the store.

LOIS HUBBARD is the mother of eight children and still finds time to take university extension courses in "How NOT to use psychology on children."

DOTTIE HUNT has become a regular member on the "Can You Top This" show. Dottie's wide circle of friends and their fabulous experiences have brought a great deal of laughter and enjoyment to her radio listeners.

NANCY JOHNSON has put her experiences with flat tires to good use. She has discovered a new way to prevent flats by embalming the tires.

GAIL KAVANAGH, Pulitzer Prize winner for argyle knitting, is making a million these days by filling orders for socks with ready-made holes.

EUNICE KELLER and several other secretaries have recently formed an all-piano orchestra and are touring the country giving recitals.

The real-estate business is really booming these days according to ROSALIE KELLEY. She owns thirty cottages at Point O' Woods and rents them to Bay Path alumnae exclusively.

JOAN KONIECZNY is third vice-president of the Knit-Two-Pearl-Two Club.

LORETTA KRZESIK is still asking, "Has the mailman come yet?" But not for the usual reason, as she is happily married, but because her dog bit the mailman, and she wants to call the dog in before it bites the mailman again.

Because her desire to be tall was never fulfilled, CLAIRE LA FLEUR has opened a stretching exercise school in New York City.

The former PEG MACCARINI and her husband recently held open house at their new home address — Oceanside Drive, Miami, Florida.

ROSEMARY MARSHALL is the proud mother of three little sailor boys and a WAVE.

Back to Chicago, and this time to the University. Dr. Kinsey has just hired another secretary to help in his new surveys. Who is the lucky girl? — ANNETTE MOLLEUR.

We see that SHEILA MORSE so much enjoyed her trip to Florida ten years ago that she is now the proud owner of a winter resort in Miami.

A report was received from Vancouver, British Columbia. A search party was sent out today to look for LOIS MOSELEY; seems she was out cutting evergreen trees for a Christmas wreath business.

CAROLYN MOULTON, former secretary, has been making arrangements to open up a school to teach teenagers how to model clothes properly.

LOIS NELSON is really cutting up after having medical technology at B. P. J. C. She cuts approximately two hundred paper dolls a day for the youngsters in a children's hospital.

RANDY NEWMAN was recently promoted to third vice-president of the Bridge Players' Union.

Since MARILYN NITCHIE always had such a surplus of boy friends, she is now president of the Bay Path Date Bureau.

JUDY NOVAK of Boston University and Springfield is to open a fabulous new fur salon with a showing of the latest rage — pastel-colored mink coats.

MARY O'CONNOR is determined to give the New England Telephone System strong competition. She has bought up all the shares in the Springfield Telephone Company.

FLOSSIE PALMER is the happiest girl in the world today, because she has just received a certificate for six months' training in seating eight people comfortably in an MG.

A hot political campaign speech was delivered in Springfield yesterday by DOTTIE PARTYKA, who is running for Commissioner of Transportation between Springfield and Bay Path.

Direct from Paris — exclusive fashion news — CAROL PENKALA has opened a dress shop and is displaying some of her own fashions.

Congratulations to the former VIRGINIA POIRIER for being chosen to officially open the Children's Social Center in Adams, Massachusetts. She was given this honor because she was the first to register her two sets of twins at the center.

CAROLYN REED is now president of Weigh Your Baby, Incorporated, a prominent organization which deals exclusively in baby weighing.

Look for the opening of the "Visit Maine and Massachusetts" Travel Bureau headed by our CELESTE RODERICK. Celeste spends half the year in Maine and half the year in Massachusetts in order to give people unbiased opinions on why one should visit both states.

You may visit NINA ROMASHKO any time of the day or night at the City Desk of that up-and-coming new weekly — How to Keep Your Car in Tune in 100 Easy Ways.

ROSALIE SHEA has gone far in the art of bridge playing. After years of research and study, she has finally found a way to bid EIGHT.

Song writer, CONNIE SHIELDS, after the spectacular success of her first ditty, "Oh, My Heart," has written another best seller called "Hah?"

SHEILA SMITH is a collector of rare items. Her latest collection of rare items consists of the little typewriter screws that make the carriage move.

A new magazine will appear on the newsstands next month called the LADIES SECRETARIAL JOURNAL, and it is edited by NANNETTE STEEN, 1954 Bay Path graduate.

JANICE SULLIVAN is conducting a class in the art of letter writing for college boys only.

JUDY STRATTON is now the president of the Bureau for Dateless Girls. If you ever need a date, girls, just call Judy; she, no doubt, has an extra one.

That cover girl on this week's issue of LIFE is none other than that glamorous model, CAROLYN SWANSON.

PHYLLIS TALBOT recently received approval to open a private flying school called Phyl's and Bill's Flying School.

ANNE TEHAN has made a name for herself in the industrial field. She has opened a shop in Longmeadow which caters to sweater lovers — pink cashmeres only.

BEVERLY TRIMBOLI was last seen passing through town at 14 m.p.h. in her flashy black sedan on her way to California, hoping to set a record for being the only person to take 365 days to cross the country with such a rare vehicle.

JANN TRUHLAR has opened a prescription department in one of the local drug stores to try to get rid of all the pills her father sent her while she was still in college.

PAULETTE VALLIERE obtained a twenty-five-year lease on the bargain counter at Steiger's! Polly sells slightly used psych books at half price.

Rak's Fifth Avenue is the first to get a "Newer Than New Look" from career girl ANN YAMER. Customers rush to her counter at Rak's to have her monogram their helicopter seat covers.

We, the Class of 1954 at Bay Path Junior College, being of sound and disposing mind do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore made by us.

TO:

PRESIDENT CARR, a cow, special specifications to be taken care of by the faculty.

DEAN McCRARAY, all our unused cuts (excused and otherwise) so that she can have a vacation too.

MRS. MERRIFIELD, we leave our greatest thanks for breaking up our transcription class with her daily announcements.

MISS BRADLEY, we will a new, huge, modern office of her own with all the latest up-to-date conveniences.

MISS DUROCHER, we will a plaque in her honor for gracing our lounge at lunchtime so faithfully every day.

MRS. RIDLEY, we leave a giant-sized cake from all of us so that she may think of us on her birthday.

MRS. KICZEK, we leave our appreciation for opening the store outside of regular hours to come to our rescue when we ran out of supplies.

MISS DICK, we leave all our carbon copies of letters so that she may show the juniors how good we were in our skills.

MISS FLANNERY, we will a new desk for Glen C in any color, style and size she desires.

MR. NATUNEWICZ, we will all our psych term papers so that he can use them for future lectures.

MISS HUNT, we leave a new stopwatch that slows down automatically so that the juniors in her shorthand classes will be able to pass at least one 120 with ease.

MRS. RIDGWAY, we leave four white uniforms in memory of the quartet of senior medicals.

MR. KREGELOH, we leave our volumes of world affairs notes just in case he decides to write a book on world problems as seen by a Bay Path senior.

MISS SHEEHAN, we leave the knowledge that she has made several of us accounting conscious.

MISS DALY, we will all the luck and happiness for future years at Bay Path.

MR. ALVORD, MR. WAITE, AND MR. BLISS, we will a mechanical robot to do all their work so that they can relax.

MR. CLARKE, we leave our deepest appreciation for being such a wonderful class advisor.

MRS. LOCKE, we leave the junior choral group, and hope that the girls next year will enjoy the glee club as much as we have this year.

MRS. GUION, an album of Paderewski's piano solos for her enjoyment when she becomes discouraged with her piano prodigies.

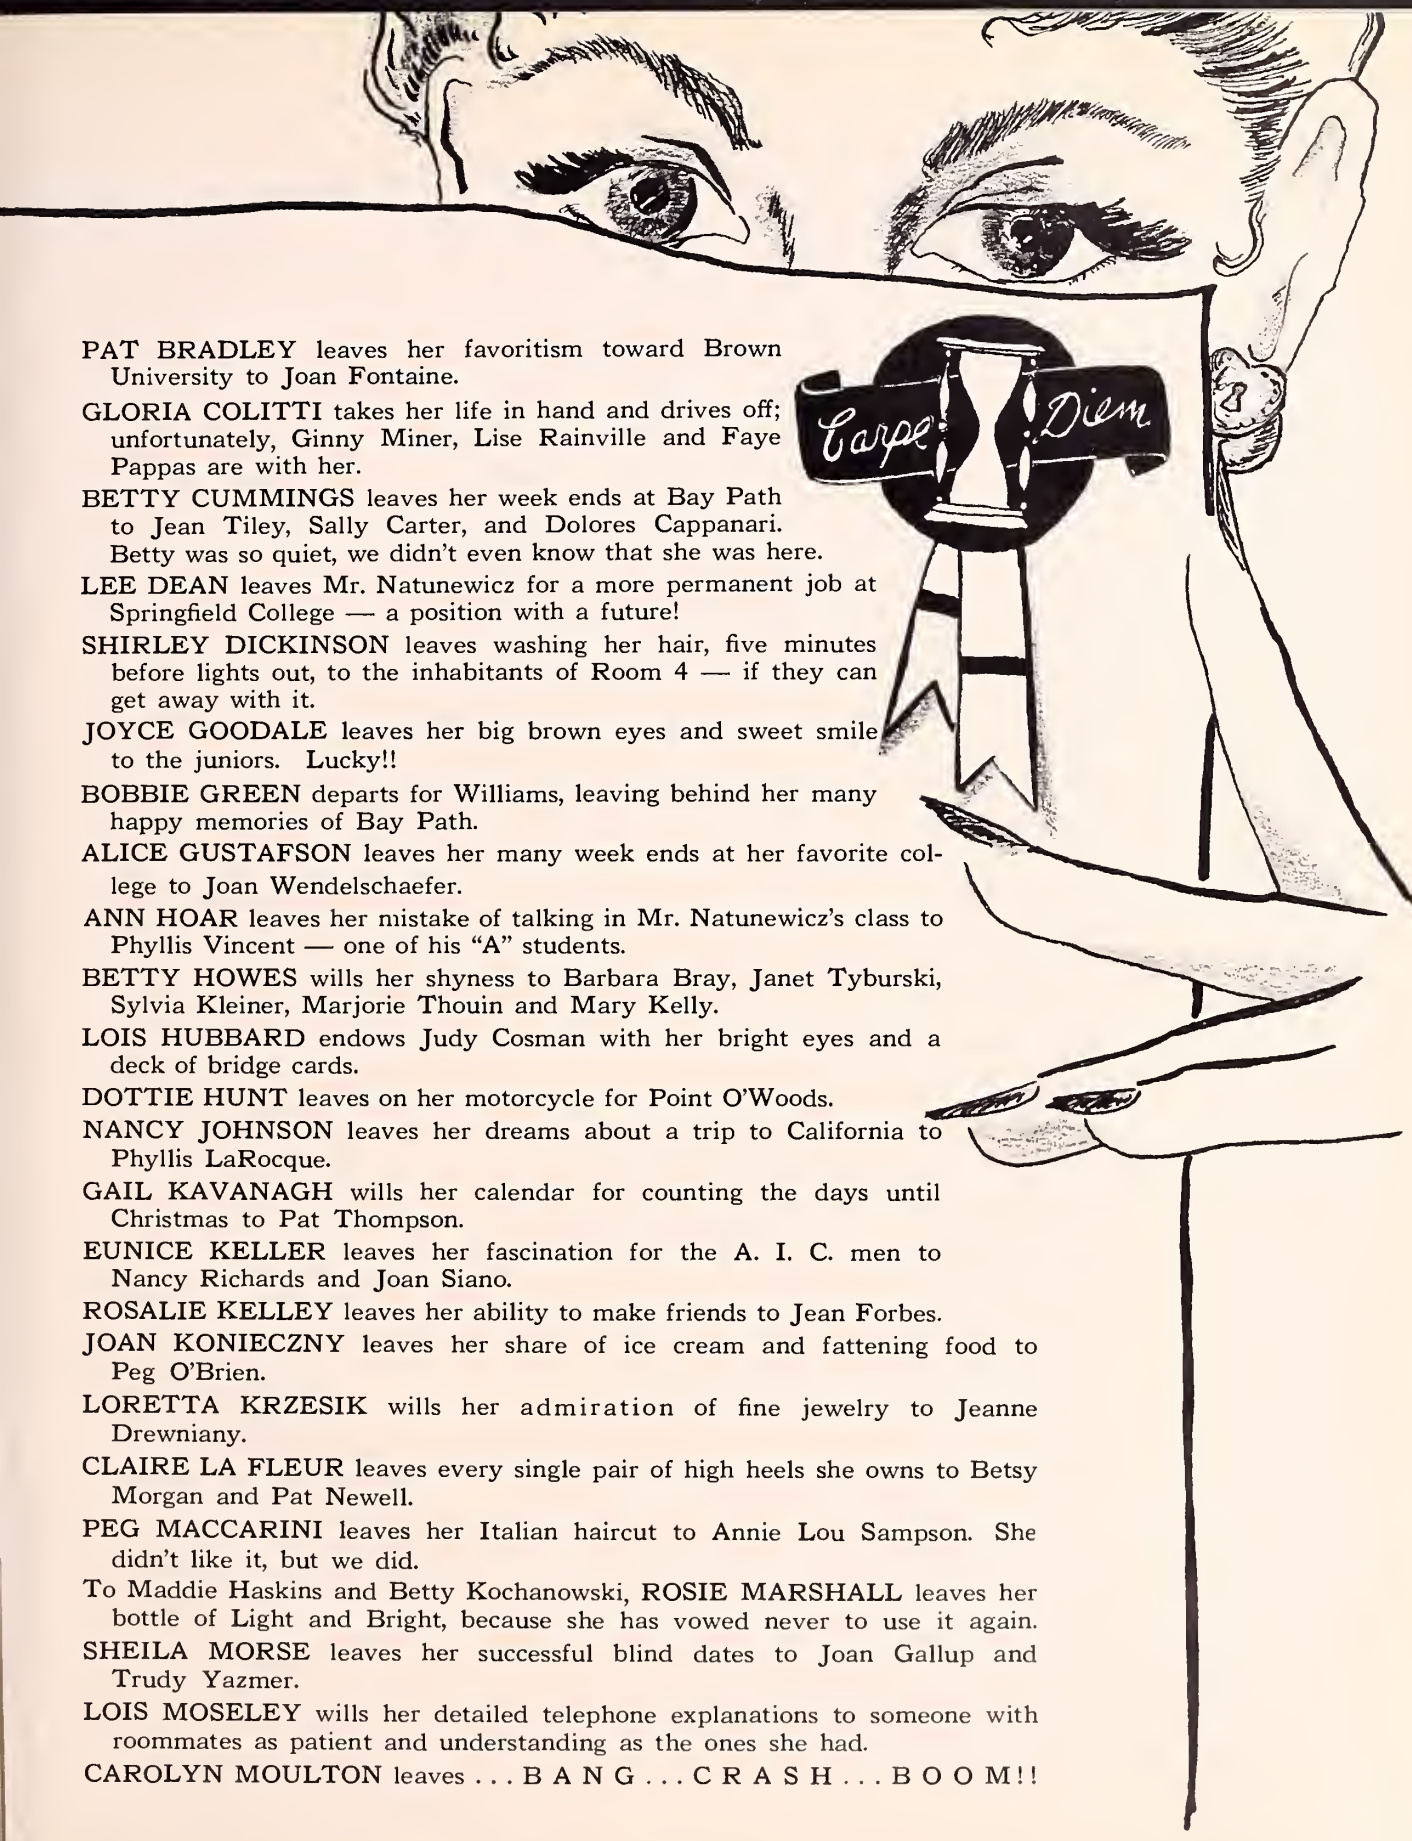
MRS. SMEAD, MRS. GRIFFIN, AND MRS. DUVAL, we leave, hoping they will invite us back to the dorm anytime they plan to serve their delicious fried chicken dinner.

MRS. MITCHELL AND MR. URTON, we leave our sincere gratitude and appreciation for the endless hours they have given of their time toward producing this yearbook for the senior class.

HELENE ADLER leaves her knitting for another year.

JUDY ARNOLD leaves her evening slippers — she prefers moccasins.

HELEN BONNEAU bequeaths her ability to tickle the keys to all who need extra typing classes.



PAT BRADLEY leaves her favoritism toward Brown University to Joan Fontaine.

GLORIA COLITTI takes her life in hand and drives off; unfortunately, Ginny Miner, Lise Rainville and Faye Pappas are with her.

BETTY CUMMINGS leaves her week ends at Bay Path to Jean Tiley, Sally Carter, and Dolores Cappanari. Betty was so quiet, we didn't even know that she was here.

LEE DEAN leaves Mr. Natunewicz for a more permanent job at Springfield College — a position with a future!

SHIRLEY DICKINSON leaves washing her hair, five minutes before lights out, to the inhabitants of Room 4 — if they can get away with it.

JOYCE GOODALE leaves her big brown eyes and sweet smile to the juniors. Lucky!!

BOBBIE GREEN departs for Williams, leaving behind her many happy memories of Bay Path.

ALICE GUSTAFSON leaves her many week ends at her favorite college to Joan Wendelschaefer.

ANN HOAR leaves her mistake of talking in Mr. Natunewicz's class to Phyllis Vincent — one of his "A" students.

BETTY HOWES wills her shyness to Barbara Bray, Janet Tyburski, Sylvia Kleiner, Marjorie Thouin and Mary Kelly.

LOIS HUBBARD endows Judy Cosman with her bright eyes and a deck of bridge cards.

DOTTIE HUNT leaves on her motorcycle for Point O'Woods.

NANCY JOHNSON leaves her dreams about a trip to California to Phyllis LaRocque.

GAIL KAVANAGH wills her calendar for counting the days until Christmas to Pat Thompson.

EUNICE KELLER leaves her fascination for the A. I. C. men to Nancy Richards and Joan Siano.

ROSALIE KELLEY leaves her ability to make friends to Jean Forbes.

JOAN KONIECZNY leaves her share of ice cream and fattening food to Peg O'Brien.

LORETTA KRZESIK wills her admiration of fine jewelry to Jeanne Drewniany.

CLAIRE LA FLEUR leaves every single pair of high heels she owns to Betsy Morgan and Pat Newell.

PEG MACCARINI leaves her Italian haircut to Annie Lou Sampson. She didn't like it, but we did.

To Maddie Haskins and Betty Kochanowski, ROSIE MARSHALL leaves her bottle of Light and Bright, because she has vowed never to use it again.

SHEILA MORSE leaves her successful blind dates to Joan Gallup and Trudy Yazmer.

LOIS MOSELEY wills her detailed telephone explanations to someone with roommates as patient and understanding as the ones she had.

CAROLYN MOULTON leaves . . . B A N G . . . C R A S H . . . B O O M!!

CAROLE MYERS leaves her "True Confessions" magazines to Rose-Marie Swift.

LOIS NELSON leaves her sweetness and pleasant personality to Dorothy Creegan, Norma Pease and Maxine Reisner.

RANDY NEWMAN leaves her methods of good organizing to Marilyn Goodreau and Jackie McCarthy.

MARILYN NITCHIE leaves her way with men to Barbara Gorman.

JUDY NOVAK leaves her wonderful Boston week ends to Linda Sadler, and hopes she enjoys them as much as she did.

MARY O'CONNOR wills her ability to argue to Elaine Levitz.

DOROTHY PARTYKA leaves her cheery "hellos" and witty remarks to Audrey Rugg, Pat O'Mara, and Mary Ward.

CAROL PENKALA wills her chic clothes to Arline Samsel and Diane Ferver.

GINGER POIRIER and ANNETTE MOLLEUR leave the French toast on Tuesday and pancakes on Thursday to Abbie Turner and Doris Budarz. Remember, breakfast is served at 7:45. Be prompt!

CAROLYN REED leaves her red hair to Jill Barry and Betty Dings.

CELESTE RODERICK leaves her quiet, but humorous ways to Carol Walsh, Lois Powers and Norma Fischer.

NINA ROMASHKO leaves her ability to get good marks to Mavis Stearns.

ROSALIE SHEA leaves her whimsical wit to Dede Martel, Barbara Sherman, and Nancy Kratovil.

CONNIE SHIELDS endows Barbara May and Lois Stafford with her sense of humor.

SHEILA SMITH leaves her naturally wavy hair to Barbara Whitcher, Peg Donohue and Ann Hosford.

NAN STEEN wills her graciousness and poise to Nancy Lane.

JUDY STRATTON leaves her glowing sweet disposition to Lis Knudsen.

JANICE SULLIVAN leaves her shorthand and typing ability to Jackie Short, Janet Brinn, and Marilyn Burghoff.

CAROLYN SWANSON leaves her good looks, pleasing personality, and many A's in Mr. Natunewicz's classes to Sue Gantley.

PHYLLIS TALBOT leaves her sweetness and charm to Lorraine Jarry.

ANNE TEHAN is shocked to learn that she is actually leaving!

BEVERLY TRIMBOLI wills her little car to Joan Griswold and Carol Walz. Be careful how you handle it; there are a few little things that haven't been working too well.

JANN TRUHLAR wills a delicious cake to the dorm — she feels a bit guilty.

PAULETTE VALLIERE leaves her cute mannerisms and love for tallness to Marcia Skinner, Nancy Smith, Dorothy Masajada, Eleanor Olson, and Sylvia Farrington.

ANN YAMER leaves her ability to sew to Marilyn Childs and Natalie Beebe.

FINALLY, we will to the junior class the appreciation of the happiness of life, the secretarial skill, the social graces, and the poise which together constitute the Bay Path Look.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hand and seal this fourth day of June, 1954.
